BONE & MEMORY:

THE HISTORY OF DIA DE LOS MUERTOS DAY OF THE DEAD

ZOOM LINK

Tuesday, October 25, 2022

10 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Virtual - Zoom Seminar

Speaker: Consuelo G. Flores, MFA

Consuelo G. Flores is an LA-based multi-media artist and educator of Latino culture with an MFA in Creative Non-Fiction from Antioch University. She has written about and lectured on the traditional and contemporary history of the Day of the Dead. Join us as Flores provides history on Dia de Los Muertos, the altars' significance, and the three deaths.

There's a saying in Mexico that one can die three deaths: the first when life ends; the second when the body returns to the earth; and the third when one ceases to exist in the memories of those still living. In Mexico, an altar is built every year for the Day of the Dead on November 1-2 in remembrance of the dead and to prevent this third tragic death.
